New Journal

Notes and Records: An International

Journal of African and African Diaspora Studies

Edited by Raphael Chijioke Njoku and Matt Childs

Kentucky State University, ISSN: 2151-7215.

Description from the Publisher:

The journal is primarily devoted to publishing original studies related to the linkages and relationships between Africans and the African Diaspora. The journal aims to focus on the varied webs of connections between the Africans and the African Diaspora in an interdisciplinary approach.

Studies related to history, politics, culture, literature, gender, music, dance, globalization, war, resistance, and civil rights movements that illuminate the varied experiences of Diasporic people are welcome.

Submission and review process: Notes and Records is solely a peer-reviewed journal. Manuscripts should be prepared double-spaced, using font size 12 Times New Roman. Our in-house referencing and citation style is the Chicago Manual format. Please visit our website at: www.kysu.edu/NotesAndRecordsJournal.
